

Marine Training and qualification project

Reminder of what we are referring to

- New three tier specialist qualification
- Filling the gap in currently available exams
- Flexible to allow specialist pathways or general education
- City and Guilds used as examination partner

Progress to date

- Workshops with City and Guilds to develop governance structure and formulate budgets
- Further meetings with key stakeholders to obtain support, both practical and financial